The Centre for Disability in Development (CDD) is a not for profit organization established in 1996 to develop a more inclusive society for persons with a disability. It is estimated that 16 million people in Bangladesh are living with a disability, receiving little or no assistance and excluded from mainstream life. CDD's mission is to address this by simultaneously educating the community in how to be more inclusive whilst also enabling persons with a disability to participate in society by providing them with essential supports. In this way persons with disabilities can be given the same rights, freedoms, dignity and quality of life as everyone else. CDD works in partnership with a network of over 350 organization both nationally and internationally. CDD, has different site offices at Ramu, Teknaf, Ukhiya, Bhashanchar, Narsingdi, Dinajpur & Sharankhola .

Background of Tender:

CDD is going to excavation of a new Pond with a Ghat at Khuriakhali of Southkhali union in Saronkhola field office, Bagerhat under the “ECT-WASH project”.

This initiative is supported by Arbeiter-Samariter-Bund (ASB), a nonprofit organization established in 1980. The ASB is committed to empowering children and youth with disabilities in low- and middle-income countries, ensuring their full participation in society with equal rights and opportunities.

The Multi-Annual Programme (MAP), implemented by CDD, aims to amplify the voices of children and youth with disabilities, enabling them to assert their rights with confidence. Central to this initiative is the Community-Based Rehabilitation (CBR) approach, which fosters inclusive and supportive environments by actively engaging communities.

To effectively implement and sustain the program, it is essential to excavation of a new pond for the poor people of the area. This new pond will ensure the rights and opportunities to drink safe water for the affected population in the area, including persons with disabilities.
